

Join the School of Business Homecoming Week

PANEL DISCUSSION AND BREAKFAST

LAW & ORDER: Forensic Accounting Unit

A roundtable discussion on fraud from investigation to prosecution, featuring three prominent SIUE School of Business Alumni.

Friday, October 8, 2010

Breakfast 7:30 a.m.

Discussion - 7:45 a.m. to 9:00 a.m.

SIUE Campus, B. Barnard Birger Hall

Limited Seating

RSVP by October 5, 2010 ~ 618.650.3363 or ghoedeb@siue.edu

Moderated by:

Dr. Bradford J. Reed, CFE, Professor of Accounting

Meet Our Alumni Panel

Scott A. Stringer, BSA '84 is the Director of Forensic and Litigation Services with Ostrow Reisin Berk & Abrams, Ltd. in Chicago. With more than 25 years of experience as an accounting and finance professional, Scott has earned multiple designations, including Certified Public Accountant (CPA), Certified in Financial Forensics (CFF), Certified Fraud Examiner (CFE) and Certified Valuation Analyst (CVA). In addition to auditing and tax planning services, he has provided expert testimony on accounting and financial matters in numerous state and federal jurisdictions across the country. Scott also has testified on financial matters in conjunction with many different types of cases, including shareholder disputes, fraud, post-merger/acquisition disputes, breach of fiduciary duty, theft of trade secrets, postemployment disputes, and marital dissolution.

John F. Saric, MBA '81 is the Senior Manager of Audit at the Federal Reserve Bank of St. Louis, managing the bank's financial/operational audits. He is a CPA, Certified Internal Auditor (CIA), CFE, Certified Information Systems Auditor (CISA), Certified in the Governance of Enterprise Information Technology (CGEIT), and Certified Quality Analyst (CQA). He has presented audit and management related topics at domestic and international audit organization conferences, universities, and Fortune 500 companies. He is a Past President of the St. Louis ISACA Chapter and a Past President of the St. Louis IIA Chapter. He currently sits on St. Louis IIA Chapter's Board of Governors. He is an adjunct professor at St. Louis University teaching graduate level accounting on Information Technology Auditing. He serves on the SIUE Accounting Advisory Board. Prior to joining the Federal Reserve, John was the Senior Director of Internal Audit Services at Anheuser-Busch Companies, and a Senior Management Consulting Solution Consultant with PriceWaterhouse.

Christina L. Rother, BSA '04 / MSA '05 joined KPMG in 2005 as an Audit Associate, and now is an Audit manager in KPMG's St. Louis Public Sector practice, which serves governmental, higher education, and not-for-profit clients. As an audit manager, Christina serves as a primary contact for client management relating to audit issues, including developing and planning all audit approaches, reviewing all phases of work, communicating audit findings, and scheduling and attending planning, update, and exit meetings with management. In addition to her role as a manager, Christina serves as a National Instructor for KPMG's National Internship Program and is a member of KPMG's Network of Women.

SOUTHERN ILLINOIS UNIVERSITY
EDWARDSVILLE
SCHOOL OF BUSINESS